

CEVAC® CORYMUNE 4K

Inactivated aluminium hydroxide suspension

Vaccine for the immunisation of chicken against Infectious Coryza
and Salmonella Enteritidis infection

COMPOSITION

CEVAC® CORYMUNE 4K contains an inactivated combination of Avibacterium paragallinarum serotypes A, B and C, and Salmonella Enteritidis strain, homogenized with aluminium hydroxide adjuvant and thiomersal as a preservative.

INDICATIONS

CEVAC® CORYMUNE 4K is recommended for the active immunisation of breeder and laying-type chicken flocks against Infectious Coryza caused by Avibacterium paragallinarum and Salmonella Enteritidis Infection.

ADMINISTRATION AND DOSAGE

The vaccine must be injected:

- subcutaneously (under the skin of the neck)
- intramuscular (breast or thigh muscles)

at the dose of 0,5 ml per bird.

CEVAC® CORYMUNE 4K should be administered to breeder and laying-type pullets between 8 and 12 weeks of age.

STORAGE

- Store vaccine between +2°C and +8°C or 35°F and 45°F
- Protect from light
- Do not freeze

PRESENTATIONS

1,000 dose / 500 ml
5 x 1,000 dose bottles / box